5. [REDACTED] At the request of William Foster, in the office of Senator A. Willis Robertson, I talked with Dr. Martin Schnitzer, Professor of Business, College of Business Administration at Virginia Polytechnic Institute. Dr. Schnitzer said he had been referred to us by Leon Herman, of the Library of Congress. He said he is doing a study of comparative economic systems and would appreciate receiving any of the Agency's unclassified economic material on Communist countries. He specifically cited two documents shown to him by Mr. Herman: "Consumption in the USSR and US, 1964" and "Index of Civilian Industries program in the USSR, 1963." After checking with Dr. Guthe and Dr. Allen of ORR, I advised Dr. Schnitzer that we would be happy to forward to him unclassified material in the category he mentioned and put him on the mailing list for future material. I added that it would be helpful if, when these materials have served their purpose, he would place them on file in the VPI library so that they would be available to other faculty members and students as appropriate. Dr. Schnitzer said he would be happy to do this and appreciated our assistance.
